for Kindergarteners

Tyrannosaurus Rex vs. Edna, the Very First Chicken

by Douglas Rees

The planet's first prehistoric chicken, Edna, confronts a stomping, hungry Tyrannosaurus Rex who scares away the other dinosaurs but is startled by Edna's mighty beak and flapping wings.

Hair Love

by Matthew A. Cherry

An ode to self-confidence and the love between fathers and daughters. An exuberant little girl's dad helps her arrange her curly, coiling, wild hair into styles that allow her to be her natural, beautiful self.

Jabari Jumps

by Gaia Cornwall

Passing tests in swimming class give Jabari the confidence to try jumping off the diving board. He stretches his muscles and squeezes his dad's hand when the big moment arrives. A story that celebrates finding one's courage.

High Five

by Adam Rubin

A whimsical interactive story that invites children to engage in a "high-five" competition against a series of colorful and furry animal contenders who propose interactive challenges.

The Good Egg

by Jory John

A good egg strives to do everything right while the other eggs in his carton prove themselves rather rotten, a distinction that leads him to crack under the pressure of always being Grade-A perfect.
